

Greg Chambers
Partner

Practice Areas: Chemistry / Pharmaceuticals
IP litigation, Trade Marks

QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor of Science, Monash University, 1978
- Bachelor of Laws, Monash University, 1980
- Registered Patent Attorney, 1987

EXPERIENCE

- Initially worked in industry as a corporate patent and trade mark adviser, and later worked with a general legal practice in Melbourne.
- Became a registered patent attorney in 1987 and a partner of Phillips Ormonde Fitzpatrick in 1989. Board Chair since 2009. Founding partner of Phillips Ormonde Fitzpatrick Lawyers in 1996.
- Conducted litigation for the enforcement of patent, trade mark, copyright and registered design rights. This work has included litigation reported in the decisions of Cabot v 3M 11 IPR 487, The Coca-Cola Company v All-Fect Miller 47 IPR 481, Roland v Lorenzo 23 IPR 376, Shahin Enterprises v ExxonMobil Oil Corporation [2005] FCA 1278 and Albany Molecular Research Inc. v Alphapharm Pty Ltd [2011] FCA 120.
- Been involved in a number of successful ex-parte applications for the seizure of goods infringing IP rights. Has acted for several international companies both for the acquisition and enforcement of IP rights.
- President of FICPI Australia. In that capacity regularly consults with IP Australia with respect to legislative and regulatory development of intellectual property laws in Australia. Previously an Examiner for the Professional Standards Board for qualification of persons as patent attorneys in Australia.

MEMBERSHIPS

- Fellow of the Australian Institute of Patent and Trade Mark Attorneys of Australia
- Member – The Intellectual Property Society of Australia and New Zealand Inc.
- Member – Law Institute of Victoria
- Member – Fédération Internationale des Conseils en Propriété Industrielle (FICPI)

Luis-Alfonso Durán, IP Attorney, Durán-Corretjer, ES

Luis-Alfonso is M. Sc. in Industrial Engineering by the Polytechnical University of Barcelona. He got an LL.M on European and Spanish Patents from the University of Barcelona, 1990 and a Spanish and European Patent, Design and Trade Mark Attorney since 1985.

Luis Alfonso is a Senior Partner of Durán-Corretjer, Spanish & European Patent & Trade Mark Attorneys, founded in 1902.

He is a Council Member of EPI (European Patent Institute) and former Vice-President and a Council Member of ECTA (European Communities Trade Mark Association) and former President.

Luis-Alfonso is Vice-President of AGESORPI (Association of Spanish Attorneys recognized before IP International Organizations) and Vice-President of the Spanish Association of Patent and Trade Mark Attorneys (COAPI).

He is also the Chairman of the IP Committee of CEOE (Spanish Federation of Spanish Industry).

He is a member of Honor of AIPPI (International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property) and former Reporter General.