INVITATION to an English Speaking OPEN SEMINAR & WEBINAR Stockholm 28 November 2019 1 PM to 5 PM CET Starting with lunch at 12.00

FICPI SWEDEN ALWAYS AIMS TO PROVIDE A PVU-ELIGIBLE PROGRAM. SEE MORE BELOW.

IP Firm Digitalization

Digitalization is a current and ongoing project with most IP firms. Clients expect to be able to access their files online, to find current information on their upcoming fees, digital invoicing and much more. As speaker for this hot topic, FICPI Sweden is happy to present

Dr. Patrick P. Erk of Grünecker Patent- und Rechtsanwälte, President of the FICPI Professional Excellence Commission, and

Marie-Louise Lindblom, Chief Digital Officer, AWA Sweden AB

BREXIT and IP Rights

Join us as we discuss IP Rights in view of the known and unknowns of Brexit, and the best advice for clients with British IP portfolios, specifically with EU trademark registrations, EU designs, Patents and Supplementary Protection Certificates. Your questions and thoughts are much welcome, both before and during the session.

With the most recent “flexextension”, the UK is to leave the EU no later than January 31, 2020. Presenting the Brexit effects on trade and business relations is

Erik Lagerlöf, Vinge advokatbyrå, Visiting Fellow vid St Edmund’s College (Cambridge University)

On November 5, the European Parliament published an in-depth analysis on the effects of Brexit on the UPC. Even if it eventually would be possible for the UK to stay within the UPCA as a non-EU Member State, as is concluded in the analysis, it may be difficult to predict if the UK courts will keep a common approach with the rest of the EU as regards assessment of infringement and the doctrine of equivalents. Presenting this session is

Simon Rees, Haseltine Lake Kempner LLP, President of FICPI-UK
